“ Awww... sorry to hear of the passing of my Aunt Mary Essenmacher. You certainly had a long life—97 years. I remember you living on the north side of the street as we drove into Harbor Beach in the White House. You always had a pleasant demeanor and a kind word. Your husband passed away many years ago, yet you raised all the children—8 of them—very well. Kathy was closest to me in age. And, when my mom went into the hospital after my brother, Don, was born, you and Gladys took care of Don for six months while my mom got better. I'll always appreciate your caring spirit. Love to you, Aunt Mary, Jane Messing—daughter of Norman and Eleanor.

“ Oh my, Aunt Mary is my God-mother, I just sent her the birthday card, thinking we may get up there soon. I thought of her often and so very SPECIAL. She always had such a pleasant personality and smiling every time we saw her. She lived a good life with lots to keep her busy with all your siblings and losing U. Kenny was so sad. But I never heard her complain. We will miss seeing her at the reunions and she never seemed to miss any. You kids took good care of your sweet Mom. Sending Love, Sympathy and Prayers, Dick & Maryellen
