“ Terri and Tom's family. Just heartbroken hearing of Tom's passing. Such a wonderful human-being. Always looked forward to stopping in to see Tom and you during my trips back to HB. I will miss seeing what project Tom was working on. Tom was always eager to show me what he was working on. The mind of an engineer and the hands of a craftsman. Will always miss you Tom

“ I had the privilege of working with Tom in Harbor Beach for many years. Several words can describe Tom's persona, friendly, dedicated, caring etc, but the one trait of Tom that I admired most was his soft spoken humbleness. Tom was never the one craving for the spotlight. I will always remember him as a wonderful friend and coworker. I pray that our Lord in heaven welcomes Tom with open arms and provides comfort and courage to all of us that will miss him.

“ I first met Tom in the mid 60's when I was about 7 years old when me and my brother were playing at the creek near our house. Tom lived across the road and was the only kid around close to our age. The first words I remember him saying (to my brother) were "wanna fight?" He was tough and scary, but I don't remember any scuffle taking place, but rather the beginning of a childhood friendship for me and my brother. Over the next few years we all had a lot of adventures from the beach to "cow pie land", and even got in trouble a time or 2. After High School graduation I didn't see Tom for 20+ years until I joined up at Dow in 1999 and got to know Tom as an adult. He was a senior operator then, and in truth, was the smartest man at that plant when it came to anything that had to do with the fermentation equipment and processes. He was quiet, would prefer to be in the background, and never boasted about anything, but DOW AgroScience owes a great deal of their success because of the ideas, input and day to day work of Tom. He was someone you could always count on. I am a better man for having known him (twice) and I will miss him. My sincere condolences to Terri and all of Toms family.

“ There are no words to express what a great loss this is. Tom was very special to our family. Quiet, easy going, kind, down to earth man with a friendly smile. Tom was so talented too. There was nothing he couldn't do. He could build things, repair things & even make things beautiful. A strong man with a kind heart. "Tom & Terri" a great duo from day one.

Tom will be missed greatly!!!
