“ I'll never forget hanging out with Angel and the kitties and talking about "lake life" and how much we appreciate the shores of the mighty Huron. It was my absolute honor to have met such a kind man who always had a moment to check in and say, "How are you doing, Andrea?" or "How was your day?" Even the last time I saw him, he was worried if we had made it back home safely down to the city (there was a typical Michigan snow storm). So glad that I had the chance to get to know him over the past year or so. I'll miss you and I hope the girls and I get to BBQ that darn pig this spring! >>>Mmm, bacon!!

“ I got to know Aaron through work. A good man who was willing to give you the shirt of his back. May God comfort Aaron's family
