“ Adam I still can't believe your gone. You were my little brother man. We did everything together when we were growing up. From building a fort to wrestling to playing football. I remember when I suplex tackled you in football and you never could throw a tight spiral ball. Except that day when I tackled you and you were so mad you picked up that ball and said "this is dumb I'm going home." You picked that ball up launched it like 30yds perfect spiral and we laughed cause I said damn that's the best ball I ever seen you throw. Then we proceeded to go play WWF Royal Rumble on the Super Nintendo. God I miss you and will always love you Cuz RIP Adam my little brother

I met and grew to love and respect Adam through the Drama Club at Port Hope High School. Adam always learned his lines first and then learned everyone else's. He was quick to help other students when they forgot their lines. I honestly cannot remember a day that Adam did not have a smile on his face when he came to practice and when he left at the end of practice. He truly touched my heart. A fine young man. Many will have fond memories of him, including me. Rest In Peace, Adam.
