“ Every childhood visit with Aunt Barb and Uncle Bill was such a happy, peaceful, love and laughter-filled time together. Always a blessing. Haven't seen cousins Autumn, Aubrey, Brian, and Lorianne since we were kids! Her calm, easy-going manner and voice are etched in my memory. Thoughts of her bring a big smile to me.

much love from cousin Lori (Stobar) Scott, now in Mount Vernon, Maine

“ I remember the fun times we would have when Uncle Bill and Aunt Barb would come up to the farm and the times we would take Grampa Perlick out on Uncle Bills boat perch fishing . Grandpa would always catch 2 or three at a time. Wished i had more time to spend with Aunt Barb and talk to her. We will miss her laugh and smile

“ I regret not having met this wonderful person sooner. I loved the positive upbeat smiling way she lived her life, her concern for others, and the way she always treated everyone with respect. Her love of life made her a joy to be around and some fun times. They must have need a fourth in heaven and God chose Barb. I will surely miss you my friend!❤️

“ My favorite memories of Grandma Barb are her ever-present smile and laughter and her "green stuff". She was kind, generous, and loving.
On a Florida trip with my family, when I was a young teen, we took my Poppie and Grandma Barb on Splash Mountain at Disney World the day after Grandma Barb got her hair done. It had so much hair spray that it dried standing up in the position the wave had splashed it back into. She still had that same hairstyle one week later. I tried to push it back into place but no luck. Even as a 30-year old, I'd still give Grandma Barb a hug and pat her poofy hair.

“ Rest in peace my dear Aunt Barb. As a small child, teenager, and adult, I just loved my aunt as she was "special". She was so sweet and loving and I loved to spend time with her. She always was knitting, crocheting, and loved playing cards. She seemed so easy going, and had a very positive attitude about life. She will be greatly missed. I will carry her memory in my heart remembering all the wonderful times we had together.

“ I found this first cousin of my grandmother's and her sister Eila a few years ago. I am so glad I got to visit with Barb a few times and got to know her. I loved her laugh and humor and her strength in bearing tough times. I was glad to know we shared the same family traits, especially playing pinochle! She will be missed.
