“ She's the best grandma anyone could have had. I loved spending summers with her on the farm. Having hotdog cookouts over the burn barrel, making signs from the scrap wood she had in the shop.

Going to downtown, getting a bite to eat and some ice cream from Anchorage, going fishing off the pier.

Early teen years she taught me how to drive, let me drive her car around the driveway.

She was always there for her kids and us grandkids. She's the sweetest person you'd ever know.

She's home with the Lord and Grandpa.

I love you so much.

“ I remember Grandma Elouise telling me a story about Aunt Bernice walking across the field to the farm with a arm full of baking goods and a tear in her eyes, she asked Grandma to show her how to make bread. Bernice was one of the kindest people I new. I always enjoyed going over to their farm to visit with both Uncle Art and Aunt Bernice. I will miss her dearly my condolences go out to all of her family.
