“ *Betty was a beautiful person who truly loved the Lord and her family. She always demonstrated tremendous patience with her various trials, while never complaining.
Betty showed others how to carry a cross proudly.*

As we mourn her loss, we look to the Resurrection for understanding, knowing that her earthly life is over, but that her eternal life is just beginning.

May the prayers of friends and family bring peace and comfort to those suffering her loss.

“ Betty was the most remarkable person I have had the pleasure to meet. She never lacked a solution to your problem---always quick to give her words of wisdom. Quick witted and full of laughter--- although very soft spoken. I have enjoyed many wonderful conversations with her and will cherish many happy memories shared with my one of my favorite friends. She will be missed by many. Go with God my friend. Much love to you and your wonderful family.
