“ My deepest sympathy to the Schumacher family - Chris, Amy, Tad, and Beth. Betty enjoyed a long and productive life, well lived, of service to family and community - a kind and caring neighbor, also a wonderful health care professional. Her generosity and kindness was an example to all of us who cherished the privilege of knowing her.

Many prayers for comfort, healing, and peace - from your old friend & neighbor on Sand Beach Road.

“ My Aunt Betty was a lovely lady. We shared a lot of family history and genealogy research these last few years. My Dad's favorite story of Aunt Betty, was when Uncle Mark told him to look up in the stands during his OLLH High School basketball game that evening to see who Uncle Mark was bringing to Dad's game. Sure enough, while Dad was playing, he looked up in the bleachers to see. There sat Uncle Mark proudly next to his future wife, Betty Tageson! Last year, about a month before my Dad passed, when I visited him in assisted living, he told me he wished he could go visit Aunt Betty, but it was too hard for either of them to travel. So we called Aunt Betty. Funniest conversation I've ever been a part of. You see, Dad had aphasia, and it was difficult to understand his speech. And Aunt Betty had a hard time hearing with us on speaker phone, but she patiently entertained us anyway. You see, neither could understand the other. But I know that phone conversation meant the world to my Dad. I hope Aunt Betty knows how much she made his day! Love you and Godspeed, Lovely Lady!
