“ Knew Bev from the years I spent at Port Hope Schools. She always called me "Winnie" because I reminded her of a teacher of the same nickname. I called her "Mrs. Heath" because she had a big crush on Lee Majors who played Heath Barkley on The Big Valley. In the summer of 1971 we worked together as tour guides at Huron City and always had fun.

Bev was truly unique, and though I haven't seen her since 1974, I will never forget her sense of humor, her smile and her beautiful soul. Rest in peace, Mrs. Heath, your with God now.
