“ I was sitting on the front steps waiting for my cousin to come out to play. A big yellow school bus stopped in front and when the doors opened the smallest little girl stepped out with the help of a footstool. She walked up to me and I asked her if she had moved upstairs (it was a two family flat) and she said yes. I asked her name and she said Beverly and she was six years old. I told her my name and that I was seven. And, that as they say in the movies, was the beginning of a beautiful friendship.

My friend, my sister you will always live in my heart. Thank you for over seventy years of memories, sharing, and giving yourself with me. BFF does not begin to cover it.

I'll be seeing you. Sending love and prayers.....Mary Ann
