“ I have known Brandon for many years....

Brandon's older sister went to school & graduated with my son Brandon Leppek.

I had that great opportunity to meet Brandon one day at Ubly School. Even before he was old enough to attend. He would come to pick up his sister every day with Grandma & Grandpa. He always sat waiting in the hallway on the bench

Some days he would be sleeping - from a hard play day on the farm.

Some days, he would be sitting with an ice cream cone, because Grandpa had to stop for gas at Fast Freddie's & treated.

Brandon was always very polite. Smiled at everyone.

I feel very fortunate to have met him & see him grow over the years.

GOD has a wonderful new Angel with him.....

GOD Bless..

“ I got to know Brandon quite a bit more last year while working in the school. Being my daughter's friend and also just like many of the boys in his grade, he liked to tease and joke around with me every time he would see me in the hallway. I can't tell you how much I enjoyed his smile and playful pranks each time we'd see each other in the hall. It gave me a full sense of who he was as a person and I could easily see why Nicole (and every other kid) enjoyed him so much. My heart goes out to the Dickert, Braun, and Candela families. I can't imagine your pain, suffering, and grief as you try to make sense of it all. Just know that you will all be in my prayers now and always.
