“ I got to know Carol and Jack in Port Hope at the marina. My husband Steve Schulz got to be friends with him while he kept his boat at the marina. He went fishing with him on occasion and Jack and Carol would talk with us and give us a wealth of words of wisdom and advice. I felt Carol was one of the nicest people I had ever met. :) I really missed them when they moved away. My heart goes out to you the family. She made a wonderful mark on this world and in many lives. Rest in peace Carol.
