“ Uncle Erwin always had a smile for us upon greeting. That warm smile rendered hugs a cheek kisses that wind make him giggle. I loved seeing him with many of my aunts at family functions or sportsman hall outings. Michigan will miss this farmer, our family has lost a part of living history. RIP.

“ I loved talking with you Erv! You talked of how life was back in your day, and I learned so much! I miss you singing, "Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah" in church with such vigor, but I know you're belting it out in God's presence!
I love you Erv. Until we meet again!

“ Erv, it was a great pleasure to meet you and sit talking to you at the Mackinaw Bridge crossings. I'm so glad you were in our club the Black River antique power Tractor club. The last crossing you had a few people help you on the tractor but I know that you're tooling around heaven with your tractor waving, smiling and you didn't need help getting on it at all. I will truly miss our talks and my chances of getting your pictures crossing the bridge! Condolences to your entire family & friends
