“ Gabe and I were friends at Tech and every time I ran into him it was a fun time full of laughs! We recently reconnected through our curiosity and love for nature. During a chat we had a couple weeks ago he told me he wanted to make a difference in the world through sustainable engineering and the last message he sent me was a silly video to cheer me up after I shared sad news. This is a perfect example of the positive, inspiring, and genuinely caring person that I will always remember him as. I'm heartbroken to hear the tragic news that he is gone too soon. My heart goes out to Gabe's family – he will be very missed!

“ I worked with Gabe at FCA. Gabe was one of those people who always greeted you with a smile and kind remark. We worked in the same group for years and sometimes we would encounter frustrations / obstacles. He was a great person to discuss these with because while he could be sarcastic and honest, he was also ambitious and determined. He could share in your concerns, but also be one of the first people to help you brainstorm realistic solutions.

After I moved out of the group, Gabe would still reach out to make sure things were going well and was always encouraging / supportive. He was one of those people who you would encounter in the hallway on the way to a meeting and walk away in a completely better mood.

I am so sad and sorry to hear about his passing. It seems unbelievable and confusing. I am so sorry to his family. Please know that our working family was blessed to have him and that my thoughts & prayers are with you in this time.

at what Gabe was a people person. He not only engaged meeting also, he wanted to figure it out with you, what worked for you, what your passion was, and then he engaged with you in a friendly, if a word work matter regarding Gabe was directly in it. If the team was doing difficult personally, Gabe engaged that person and got the team functioning again. He could probably, look into it, and then there is his family.

was proud of what he did. He understood it was important to do the job right the first time. He wanted to see his design become reality, and he designed because that was one of the most wanted to see his design become reality. There is a huge team, the design of engineering, and Gabe was in the middle. Being willing, being the design, and getting into working in the garden I only wanted. He would help me in the job, and that was my job to the future to not being. It was on the go, engaging, fun, and creating adventures.

me to lighten the moment, with his witty off the cuff remarks. He always was there for others and genuinely cared for people and their problems. He is the engineer in the truest sense of the word.
It four years but I still remember my first week at FCA. There were times when Gabe always felt very accessible and eager to help. He had the unique ability to make you feel comfortable around him, a calming presence that helped me while I was there.
I sent a silly joke which always cracked us up. Our plan was to make it to my trip to India, I would place a slice of bread on the ground in my hand and all do the same here in Michigan, sandwiching the whole earth. While I was there, I will always cherish the thought and the moments we spent together.

“ During the 3 years I lived with you in Royal Oak our house was never once short of smiles or laughs. And once I moved across the country you were one of the few people to continue to reach out to me. It really shows how much our friendship means to the two of us. Thanks for sharing some of the best times of my life with me, bud. I'll cherish those memories forever.

It can't be true that this young man has passed. Quietly slipping away from all of our grasp with what we believed was so much more to give and experience. And we know not why. His presence touched our lives. His was an easy live, a calm spirit, that was big as a house and most called him a friend. A good kid with a big heart for others. We expected great things for his future as he was on his way to grasp it and make a difference. Gabe was different. And maybe bigger than all of us, with more than any of us to give, and the Lord witnesses his strength for better use than here on earth. His journey is endless now and his spirit is free. Set to the heavens to soar. I wish we knew how and why. I wish we might have heard him cry. But our Father took him home to fly, with Angel's wings above the sky. We cry and wonder why so soon and look upon the starlit moon. We gaze and curse the loss of his light, but rest assured there is his light, when shining on the waters edge or mountain peaks beneath the ledge, our hearts will mourn his passing day until we get our chance to say, we miss you more than ever now, please hold us up, please do somehow. Gabe we love and miss you, please say hello to every soul that we've seen go, and if by chance you meet a friend, please let them know, our love won't end. RIP. Uncle Bob.

“ Gabe was such a loving and fun person to me and all who surrounded me. Being the only non-freshman in my pledge class he helped answer a lot of my questions from starting college to my desires to get an internship.

After a big part of my life changed, he was one of very few people I felt comfortable contacting and words couldn't express how much that did and still means to me. Last I spoke to him he gave inspiring words about me transferring colleges and taking 8 years to get a degree. I wanted this, and he knew what it meant to be able to work your life in a job you love. For days after that and many days until now I have thought about how excited I was to tell him on graduation day that I finally did it! I'll be praying for him today and am still excited to tell him the day I graduate because his soul changed my life and I will always remember him.

“ I was away from HB for a few day visiting relatives and for some reason my heart told me to check the obituaries never expecting to see anyone I knew. This is the most shocking news, Gabe and Zach would come into the Corner Store often while I was employed there. Such a sweet kid he was! My heart breaks for Sharon, Mike and your families. I will keep you all in my prayers, may God give you strength to endure this pain.

“ I am in shock over the tragic news of the passing of Gabe Martinez. My heart breaks more and more every time I think of our childhood growing up and the memories we made. From the time we met, I knew Gabe would play a substantial role in my life. He lit up the room with his contagious personality, smile, and humor. Gabe connected with all people, and could carry on a conversation with anyone; He was a best friend and a better person to all people who crossed his path. My family loved Gabe like their own and would claim him in a heartbeat.

Gabe, thank you for letting me be a small part of your life. I will never forget you or the impact you had on myself and others. Like most, I would do anything to have another conversation with you. I am so thankful to have reconnected with you over the last few weeks of your life. My heart breaks for your wonderful family. Michael and Sharon, I continue to think of you during this difficult time; as a parent, I can't imagine losing a child. Zach, as a brother I can't imagine the pain you are feeling right now.

Throughout life, you meet people and then you meet someone as great as Gabe. RIP My Friend
