“ Geri was such a sweet woman. She was so friendly and fun to talk to. I loved her laugh. Also, she made us feel really welcome when we first transferred to Zion. I'll miss her.

Please accept our sincere sympathy. We have such fond memories of the Boldt family, and we lovingly called her "mom" when we lived in Harbor Beach. She must have been insulted--being just a bit older than we were! We remember their attempts at getting us on a horse. I was a NO GO, but David a little more "game", however, not real successful. She has now been reunited with your dad, and is resting in the arms of Jesus. She has her well-deserved crown of eternal life.

You are in our thoughts and prayers.

*God Bless and Keep You in His care~
