“ First Cousin, but also a 2nd dad. Lots of good memories of work on the farm and even a few fishing breaks when the hay was too tough to bale. Glenn gave me my first paying job, 25 cents a load for pitching out calf pens! He continued to put up with me until I graduated. Lots of good memories around the supper table too. (Rachel is an awesome cook). He will be missed.

“ I loved staying and working with Uncle Glenn, milking cows, carrying milk to the Milkhouse. Driving the old H tractor with the narrow front end was a treat, better hang on tight. God Bless you Uncle Glenn..
