“ Janet was a wonderful person, wonderful mother and grandmother. I remember first knowing her back in 1962. Cliff and Janet were going steady and the school would not allow Cliff to participate in graduation. They married the same year. I remember riding with them to dances and events. Their lives were not the easiest but they were happy. Janet was cheerful and what a smile. Janet was a hell of a card player (Cliff was not bad either) as noted by Mel. God bless her soul and bring joy to both Janet and Cliff as they are again together after 22 years. What joy for both. Prayers for her and her wonderful family (lovely girls, Susie, Donna and Lori and grandchildren). Love and hugs, Jan and Mel Morell
