“ Kelly K.... I think of you often. Im so sorry you were called home so young. What happened in life? I hate we strayed so far apart. I wish we'd seen our kids grow up together. . I wish we'd taken vacations together. I wished we'd celebrated gray hair together held and each others grandbabies. Although this life was cut way too short, I trust in the Lord and that your soul is with Him. I'll see you there when my time comes, my sweet friend.

Addiction takes too many of our youg lives today. Don't forget to give those who struggle to God and pray. Even if you dont hear or see the answer, trust that He heard your cry for help and dont let grief eat your time left here on earth like a cancer. Your days here are for a reason. May the grief you feel only be for a season.
