“ *Lawrence and I were classmates from early grade school through high school. Being south side of town kids, we often walked to or from school together and had many good laughs. Rose and family, please accept our deepest sympathies in your loss of a great partner, dad and grandpa. May the knowledge that Lawrence is now in the presence of Jesus give you comfort and peace. Marie and I will keep you in our prayers.
Blessings always!

“ Jerry and I were sad to hear the news of Lawrences' passing. We will remember him as a hard worker (as he worked on our roof) and his love for his cottage and the cottage memories. May our Great God comfort all of you in your time of grief and may He sustain you with peace.

Love,

“ Lawrence was a great family friend and neighbor to our family. I enjoyed countless bowls of mac n cheese as a toddler over at their house, and that morphed into cups of coffee over the years. His kitchen table was a neighborhood meeting spot for so many. He will be missed. ”
