“ I met Lorna in 2010 on Face Book. We played games together. Little did I know that my husband and Lorna went to school together. We ended up moving too Bad Axe in 2014, and I met Lorna in person. I did not know of her passing. Although she will be missed, I know she is in Heaven with our Heavenly Father! And I will see her again someday.

“ Lorna and met in 2007 when I volunteered at Harbor Hospital and was my boss. We became fast friends and before long we were doing everything together. We had so many fun adventures from scouting garage sales to finding fairs, or any activity we could do in the thumb. We occasionally ventured out of the thumb and went camping or just into the cities to shop. As our health changed so did our adventures but her spirit never changed. I'll always remember Lorna for her spirit of adventure, her kind heart and her love of family. She leaves a huge hole in my heart. Lorna will be missed by many!!! Most by me!

“ I was a new nurse at HBCH when I met Lorna. She guided me well in helping others during out time together there. I pray that everyone feels the loving arms of Jesus enfolding them through the actions and words of others.

“ I was lorna's home health care aide, Susan. She was the kindest most selfless sweetest caring funny understanding women i have ever met. She was kinda like a mom to me. I was not kust a care giver i was her friend!! We'd laugh n tell each stories about our familes. I feel like i know all of her sons and daughter in law's. And her grandchildten o how she loved them!! Im going to miss her terribly!! I know shes in heaven because she had so much faith in god! She taught me a lot about the bible. I just cant believe she's gone!! Your family is in my prayers and thoughts through this trying time. Please give chewy a kiss for me, as im sure hes lost without her. RIP LORNA I LOVE YOU MY FRIEND!!!!
