“ I enjoyed catechism so much more the second time around with my son. I was Margi's classroom helper. I will never forget her telling the kids about the power of prayer. That she prayed and prayed for a baby sister. Margi was adopted and her mom said they only let families have two children---her and her brother. But one day out of the blue her parents got a call saying there was a baby girl that needed a home. Margi's pray was answered.
