“ We knew and loved Marilyn during her Dearborn political days. She was tireless, insightful and loyal to her family and friends. She was proud to be at her mother's side when Lucille was on the city council and in the legislature. I can still picture her driving around putting up lawn signs and dropping off canvassers. She was central to her brother Patrick's campaigns as well - always proud, always passionate. And always willing to roll up her sleeves to work. Lots of good memores! Marilyn will be missed, sympathies to her family.
