“ Marilyn was such a peaceful person. She helped me in 4H projects. Always stopped whatever she was doing to share time with you. My mom (Ruth Schott) frequently used her sewing talents when mom's vision dimmed. Driving out to pick up items was like stopping in a Farmers Market. Canning might be going on, quilting in process, stacks of mending, flowers from her gardens were inside to enjoy, pie baking, etc. Yes, she had many talents that benefitted the OLLH parishioners and the Harbor Beach community. She will surely be missed.

“ I think of Aunt Marilyn with great memories of her kindness, patience, and her devotion to and exhibition of her Christian faith. One of my fondest memories was when I took my wife Maureen to visit her and Uncle Lloyd shortly after we were married. At that time, all of the kids were home and the house was wonderfully crazy with activity of the older teens and the little ones all at the same time. We ended up eating dinner together on a ping pong table with a tablecloth over it. It was fun and family centered. Maureen and I will keep all the Essenmacher kids in our thoughts and prayers and rejoice in the wonderful memories of Aunt Marilyn.

“Marilyn was not only my seamstress but my friend. I stopped to see her once a week to pray with her upon her request and also to offer my help of any kind. I just stopped there last week and she gave me the biggest hug, one that lasted awhile, I knew in my heart this probably was the last one. The visits we had reminded me of how this beautiful amazing lady was so at peace with God and her life and her family. She told me she was ready to go. When she was in the hospital a couple weeks ago I said is there anything I can do for you, even when you go home, she said yes please stop over and spread God's love and pray with me, I said I would love to. We prayed in the hospital before she left and she was at amazing peace. Your family is so blessed to have a grandmother, mother, as you do because she touched so many peoples lives and I told her when she does go we won't be long without her because Jesus was coming back very soon. She said that's right. God Bless all of you. Jennifer Messing.

“Marilyn was a beautiful person; she was our go-to for alterations. It was always a joy to visit Marilyn and her friendly, puffy, white dog. A wedding, Little League season, Tae Qwan Do, a band concert, a funeral...many important events come to mind where the first step was a trip to Mrs. Essenmacher's. She genuinely cared for others and it was a gift she shared so naturally.

“ Mrs Essenmacher used to do sewing for me all the time when my children were little. She always had a few minutes to stop and talk, and ask how the family was doing, and share what was going on with her children. Greeting you at the door with a smile and a friendly word, she was a wonderfully sweet lady. Our sympathies to her family.
