“ *Hello everybody
I am sorry to say I did not make it to Marvin's funeral as time got away from me. I have been thinking of you and had good memories of Marvin. I remember Dad talking with Marvin or his other brothers on many occasions and when a little guy wondered when would they stop talking! My last memories of Marvin were as a pall bearer for Dad's funeral and seeing him at Williams Inn about 10 years ago when visiting Rose Kramer. Aunt Erma would often tell me she had talked with Marvin on the phone and he was very special to her. I would have loved to have seen everybody and hoped I would have got to see Warren as it has been a stone age. Take care and best to you. Another cousin who is no longer with us!

“ My sympathies to the Mausolf family. Marv was a big part of the Groll family when I married into it as he worked for my father-in-law. As a new bride I cooked meals for the hired help fairly often. I always appreciated the uncomplaining good nature in which he ate my cooking. So grateful I got a chance to stop and visit with him last year when I was in Michigan. He was a good, good man!
