“ I was saddened to read of Kim's death. But at 94, she lived a long and full life.

I met Kim many (more than 50) years ago, through our mutual friend, Patti Knox.

We shared lots of conversations and had reat fun together--mostly about politics.

Kim and Jim, Patti and I, were all active Democrats. Jim was the Wayne County

Juvenile Court judge. Patti was the vice-chair of the Michigan Democratic Party.

Kim was right there with them! I haven't seen Kim in years, but have very fond memories of her.

My condolences to her family.

“ Kim was an amazing beautiful lady inside and out. Our family was so privileged and honored to have both Kim and Judge as our friends. They were so very good to our Travis. We are saddened and heart broken but find comfort in knowing she is with Jim. Thinking of the family and friends with our deepest sympathy. We will truly miss her. Tom and Kay Youatt, Rye and Travis
