“ Omar was a great friend. He helped Karen and I establish our beautiful gardens. I worked with him to become the proud American Citizen that he became. Our trip to Detroit to take the citizenship test was a wonderful experience. I told him he was more prepared than many Americans. Omar , Godspeed and rest in peace

“ Sandy and I met Omar on our first wedding anniversary 45 years ago, at the Castaway in Port Austin. He blended right in with us. Little did I know that he would be around all these years. He was a very interesting man and had a great sense of humor. I'm glad I got to know him.
