“ My dear friend, I am so painfully sad at losing you. We shared so many fun times. I think back at the miles we traveled together and all the wonderful places we visited. I especially remember Hot Spring, Arkansas and the laughter at bath house row. Big Bend National park and the mud slide I took while you stood on the hill and laughed at me. Belengrathe gardens and the beautiful flowers.
These are just a few of the many, many hours together. I will miss you so very much. Don't give Harold too hard a time. Well maybe you should, it will make him feel right at home with you. Love and miss you.

Your friend always,

Annette
