“ Norman, we had so many amazing memories together. You were an amazing friend, confident, teacher, babysitter (haha), drinking buddy, boss... I could seriously go on and on. You were an extremely big part of Prestin and my life for many years! I'm praying for your family and may God place his arms around them in this time of sorrow. I love you, Perry Norman!!

“ Perry has left us far to soon. He will be missed. He kept the old charm of service with a smile at his gas station. No matter the weather he came out to pump your gas as a friend not just doing a job. As others drove by they always beeped their horn and waved to Perry. Our town didn't hold his customers, everyone was his family and his friends. Selfishly he is gone and will be missed. He isn't in anymore pain. He can rest in peace. Condolences to all who's life he has touched.
