

Richard C. Groll

December 8, 1940 - May 28, 2011

Richard Groll, age 70 of Littleton, Colorado, formerly of Harbor Beach, passed away Saturday, May 28, 2011 at Porter Hospice Center, Littleton, Colorado. He put up a remarkable and valiant fight against cancer.

He was born December 8, 1940 in Harbor Beach to Charles and Erma (Kramer) Groll. He and Rebecca Roggenbuck were united in marriage on May 14, 1960 in Saint Anthony's church. His interest in people made him a conversationalist in any setting. He enjoyed participating in, watching, and talking about sports of all kinds.

He is survived by his wife Becky of 51 years, mother Erma Groll of Littleton, daughter, Michelle Parce and husband Stephen of Lakewood, son, Steven and wife Britta, of Littleton, Co, son Thomas and wife Debra of Claremont, Mn., daughter, Amy and husband Tony DeSanto of Pine River, Mn. 11 Grandchildren: Jennifer Abamonte, Stephanie Parce, Andrew Groll, Kathryn Groll, Megan Groll, Samantha Groll, Amanda Groll, Charlie Groll, Zoe DeSanto, Miles DeSanto, Nigel DeSanto. Preceded in death by his father, Charles Groll.

A "Celebration of Life Gathering" will take place at a park in the neighborhood where he delivered mail on June 3rd.

Cremation will take place in Colorado. A memorial service will be held on Thursday, July 14, 2011 at 11 am in Our Lady of Lake Huron Catholic Church in Harbor Beach with internment in the St. Anthony`s Cemetery, Helena. A parish vigil service will be Wednesday at 7:30 pm in the Ramsey Funeral Home, Harbor Beach where visitation will be on Wednesday from 5-9pm A gathering will be at the church on Thursday beginning at 10 am until time of services at 11 am.

Tribute Wall

“ Richard C. Groll

October 04, 2023 at 01:24 PM