“ My godparents; as an orphan child, I never knew one existed, let alone parents. When I came to this country, after adoption, I had both. I immediately understood the necessity of good parents, but the 'godparents' escaped me. Until my loving patents explained it to me.

I have to say, I was a little heartbroken, realizing a world that seemed so new to me, could be flawed. I recall them checking on me now & then, via mail/emails, phone calls & visits. I found a new appreciation for them. Knowing that no matter what the world throws at me, I will be loved & cared for by my parents & godparents.

Now that I am older, I am honored to be someones godfather.

God bless my godparents, they will be missed.

Love, from their godson,
