“ *Robert was the oldest of the cousins and a happy leader among us in our years of growing up. It was Robert and Larry against Dale and me on Grandpa Oeschger's front yard in football.
Farming is a profession in which the farmer has no control over many elements, but Robert was a strong and steady farmer. He had many great skills. I applauded Candy and he as they staked out a new farm. They were a delightful couple.
I have always admired Robert's good spirit and thoughtfulness. I also admired his participation in the community, his contribution to good governance.
We can treasure the memory of the 2021 "cousin's reunion." Folks kept coming by to sit next to Robert and converse. He enjoyed that, and I am thankful for that day and for all the good days that Robert shared with us.
With God's Shalom/Salaam/Shanti in memory of Robert and for Candy and the Family!
