“ I will always remember Shirley for how much she appreciated the little things in life and for her child like faith and trust in her Savior whom she trusted and served every day of her life. I have no doubt that she is singing praises with all of the other saints in Heaven who have gone on before her! 😊

“ LWML meetings will never be the same without you, Shirley! May you forever praise the Lord you loved. May you family and friends feel the loving arms of your friend, Jesus, enfold them through the actions and words of others. We will miss you, but know you are where you always planned to go...
