“ Mrs. Wood helped me learn how to knit about 35 years ago. Mrs. Wood was a friend of my grandmother, Lillian Essenmacher. My grandmother asked Mrs. Wood if she would help me out as I was teaching myself from a book.

Mrs. Wood graciously offered her time and knowledge.

I remember being in awe of her talent and all of the beautiful sweaters she created.

I still remember she showed me how she wld knit a sweater from the neck down without any seams. I have used that trick in a few crochet patterns that I have made for myself.

A very sweet lady, so sorry for your loss.
